SENSORY GARDEN

With so many beautiful plants in full bloom, the Kandos High School Sensory Garden is providing a wonderful outdoor learning space for support students to enjoy as part of their day-to-day curriculum.

Staff are implementing outdoor lessons in History (Aboriginal studies) and Science (Agricultural studies) to encourage student engagement to learning.

This initiative has assisted students to recognize the rewards of their previous hard work during the design and construction stage of this learning space and is promoting positive-relationships and responsible learners.

Year 6 into 7 Orientation Day

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Once again, this year we marked this event with a whole-school service. Staff would like to acknowledge and thank the student body for the respect and maturity they showed during this service. A number of students presented information some of the history and symbols significant to Remembrance Day along with poems and music of import to this day.

This year we had two focuses for our service. Australian Peacekeepers and The Unknown Soldiers.

2017 marks the 70th anniversary of Australian Peacekeeping.

There has not been a year since 1947 when Australian Peacekeepers were not in the field, yet this aspect of our country's military history is often overshadowed by Australia's fascination with its wartime past.

Peacekeepers traditionally serve in countries destroyed by war. Among their many duties they treat casualties, help with and make possible the distribution of human aid, stand between hostile armies and report when one or the other opposing armies fail to follow commands in situations where a ceasefire has been declared. They have overseen elections – sometimes in the most dangerous of circumstances, they have cleared and taught locals how to clear land mines, and provided medical, communications and movement control teams. Seven Australians have commanded international peacekeeping operations.

Wars during the 20th Century have resulted in millions of unknown dead resting in unknown graves. Of Australia's war dead from World War I and World War II, over 35 thousand, or about 35 percent, have no identified grave. They are commemorated on Memorials to the Missing.

In 1993 a tomb dedicated to The Unknown Soldier by the then Prime Minister Mr Paul Keating was interred in the Hall of Remembrance. During our service Daniel Chadwick ably read an extract of the eulogy that was presented at this dedication. A part of that extract appears below.

We do not know this Australian's name and we never will. We do not know his rank or his battalion. We do not know where he was born, nor precisely how and when he died. We do not know where in Australia he had made his home or when he left it for the battlefields of Europe. We do not know his age or his circumstances – whether he was from the city or the bush; what occupation he left to become a soldier; what religion, if he had a religion; if he was married or single. We do not know who loved him or whom he loved. If he had children we do not know who they are. His family is lost to us as he was lost to them. We will never know who this Australian was. He is all of them. And he is one of us.

The student leaders who presented all the items at our service did so with composure, maturity and the highest level of respect. Thank you.

PBL - POSITIVE RELATIONSHIPS

As part of the implementation of PBL at Kandos High School, Banksia students have constructed a positive-relationships wall in the classroom. This learning is aimed at nurturing a sense of respect and inclusivity through communicating common tips which stimulate and encourage optimism and confidence.

- Seeking mutual respect
- Understanding and appreciating other's perspective
- Using two-way communication
- Setting common goals
- Having realistic expectations
- Clarifying and owning responsibilities.

Help With Math Problems	The Maths department would like to thank all the students who came to after school maths tutorials this year. We have some very dedicated students. Thanks also to the Maths teachers for providing this free service. After school maths tutorials will not be running for the rest of term 4. If you need help with your homework see your teacher. Thankyou, Mrs Heap.

mudgee | kids FINE FOODS | COOKING

Do you have children aged between 7 – 16 years?
Are they looking for a creative outlet?
Well you're invited to join us for KIDS Cooking.

Held 9.00-12.00 pm on the same Saturday as the Mudgee Fine Foods Farmers' Markets in the kitchen located in the grounds of St Mary's Church.

With an emphasis on using fresh, local, seasonal ingredients to create tasty, healthy, FUN dishes from scratch!

Under the guidance of our Chef, Rebecca Anderson, the children will gather fresh ingredients from the Farmers' Market stallholders, then continue into the kitchen to cook up a storm! This will include; understanding ingredients, preparation, creating and cooking dishes then cleaning up afterwards. The final results will be presented to parents and friends – then enthusiastically devoured 😊

Strictly limited to x 12 children per class

Please email Rebecca Anderson to register
